NEW PATENT SHAFT COUPLING!
W. E. COOPER

HAS PURCHASED THE RIGHT FOR THIS County of the above Patent and will hereafter use it in the construction of all the Vehicles manufactured at his extensive

Carriage Factory,
Corner of Second and Morrison Streets
He respectfully refers to the following
CARD.

Having examined the New Patent Shaft Coupling invented by H B Hoagland we feel pleasure in informing the public that in our opinion it is the safest and best method of connecting shafts or tongues to all vehicles that has ever been used

It fastens without bolt or screw and is therefore easily and speedily separated It rests on Gutta Percha so as to be entirely free from the rattling sound which so often disturbs restless horses It is easily changed so that the shafts or tongue may be detached in an instant and is convenient safe and secure

It is easy to change to this style of coupling any buggy or other vehicle now in use and with small expense We have come to the conclusion to use this new invention ourselves and recommend it in all cases We consider it far superior to the Brewster Patent heretofore considered the best in use

After hearing the testimony, the Council decided against the intruders The moment the decision was rendered, fighting commenced by the defendants and a rush made for the street. There were one hundred and fifty persons in the room at the time when the fight became general, shots being exchanged between the Council inside and the refractory members outside, and every conceivable weapon was brought into play Inside of ten minutes fully 8 000 Chinamen had reached the scene and in fifteen minutes more, nothing short of calling out the military could have quelled the riot in the opinion of Chief Crowley. As the police charged on the crowd they received a scattering fire when the rioters run in all directions, throwing away their arms as they went. There were many wounded who were carried off by their countrymen The police captured sixteen of the rioters eighteen iron bars, a number of knives and short swords, cleavers and pistols, but most of the pistols were thrown into the houses of ill fame along the alleys as the mob ran, and were concealed by the inmates One of the prisoners was found to be shot through the arm, many were badly hurt, but none are known to have been killed The Chinese quarters are boiling with excitement, but there is no prospect of a renewal of the riot

The May Statement.

[From the New York Times, May 3.]

The first of May Schedule of the Public Debt of the United States, issued last night from Washington affords the gratifying information that nearly twelve millions of dollars of the principal of the debts have been paid off since April 1, out of the surplus revenues of the month The United States five twenties which the present Administration, since their accession to the conduct of the Government finances, have been able to purchase and now hold in the Sinking Fund, is $110 649,843 The actual net decrease in the public debt funded and unfunded, since March 4, 1869 is $104 598 915. The annual saving of interest on the funded debt by the operation of the Sinking Fund is now equal to six millions six hundred thousand dollars while the principal of the debt bearing interest in gold is reduced from $2 107 846 000, to $1 99? 093 000

The strength of the Treasury is much greater after buying over one hundred and ten millions United States five-twenties than on the 4th March 1869 as well from the reduced burden of the yearly interest charge as in respect to its gold balances, which now amount to $115 525 000 as against $133,741 000 on the incoming of the Grant Administration The amount of gold in the absolute ownership of the Treasury after making provision for $33 840 000 held for private depositors is about eighty two million of dollars, and the calculation is that after providing for the May interest on the public debt and selling four million dollars for reinvestment in further purchases of United States five twenties the Treasury will enter June with at least seventy two millions, unless the Secretary should in the meantime be stimulated by any considerable rise in the premium to dispose of more gold than is at present advertised to be sold He reserves the right to accept bids for larger weekly sums than a million of dollars each Wednesday if the prices bid should seem to make it the interest of the Treasury to increase these sales

Specimens of Sophistical Reasoning

A long editorial on the tariff in the Democratic organ of this place begins thus "We have never heard a really sound argument in favor of the doctrine of protection It proceeds upon false notions altogether and of course can only be sustained by sophistical reasoning"

This would indeed be a quick method of disposing of the subject if the said method were only as effective and convincing as it is flippant and short But there are not a few persons who have studied this subject a good deal and who have taken many lessons upon it both from their own observation and from great masters in political economy who will think that the case is not quite disposed of by the remark above quoted

Probably it is a misfortune that this writer never heard a really sound argument in favor of a doctrine that has prevailed in this country almost without intermission ever since the Government was formed But should the doctrine be condemned because a person who undertakes to criticise it never heard much about it? Not a few men who have actually been thought men of consequence in their day, and whose talents, if history is not at fault were at least moderately respectable have produced arguments "in favor of protection" that have been considered reasonably sound and those arguments are preserved in the historical records of the country and perhaps might be read with profit even by one who has never heard of them and who in a spirit of self sufficiency, is disposed to dismiss the whole subject peremptorily by remarking that it is founded on "false notions," and can be sustained only by "sophistical reasoning"

We would not ask this writer to take the arguments of Henry Clay as "sound;" for though Henry Clay was a somewhat noted man in his time he was not classed as a Democrat, and might not on that account be considered a good authority with a writer who wants strong Democratic meat, and loathes "sophistical reasoning" Therefore we will present something on this subject from recognized Democratic sources, and if the arguments are not "sound," history is deceiving us as to the character of the men who produced them We pass by what Washington said in his first annual message, after signing the first tariff bill, framed avowedly "to protect manufactures,"—for Washington was an old "Federalist," and his opinions might not be thought much of by one who has "never heard a sound argument" on this subject,—we pass him by, and come at once to an argument by Thomas Jefferson, the father of the Democratic party. In his message to Congress in 1802, he said

> To cultivate peace and maintain commerce and navigation in all their lawful enterprises, to foster our fisheries as nurseries of navigation, and protect the manufactures adapted to our circumstances to preserve the faith of the nation by an exact discharge of its debts and contracts — * * * these, fellow-citizens, are the landmarks by which we are to guide ourselves in all our proceedings

Again, in his message of 1806, apprehending a surplus revenue, he said

> To what other objects shall these surpluses be appropriated, and the whole surplus of impost after the entire discharge of the public debt? Shall we suppress the impost, and give that advantage to foreign over domestic manufactures?

And in his last annual message, Mr Jefferson said.

> The suspension of foreign commerce produced by the injustice of the belligerent Powers and the consequent losses and sacrifices of our citizens, are subjects of just concern The situation into which we have thus been forced has impelled us to apply a portion of our industry and capital to internal manufactures and improvements. The extent of this conversion is daily increasing, and little doubt remains that the establishments formed and forming will, under the auspices of cheaper materials and substance, the freedom of labor from taxation with us, and of protecting duties and prohibitions, become permanent

In order to build up the industry of the country and make us as a nation prosperous and independent, Mr Jefferson would carry the doctrine of protection to such a point that it would prohibit the introduction of foreign goods. Mr Madison argued in the same way Proceeding with this "sophistical reasoning," we quote next from the inaugural address of Mr Monroe

> Our manufactures will likewise require the systematic and fostering care of the Government Possessing as we do all the raw materials the fruit of our own soil and industry we ought not to depend, in the degree we have done on the supplies from other countries * * * It is important, too, that the capital which nourishes our manufactures should be domestic as its influence in that case, instead of exhausting as it may do, in foreign hands, would be felt advantageously on agriculture and every other branch of industry Equally important is it to provide at home a market for our raw materials, as by extending the competition, it will enhance the price and protect the cultivator against the casualties incident to foreign markets

Will the modern Democratic organ that undertakes to condemn the whole system of protection be good enough to say whether it considers this as "sound argument" or not? Are such arguments from such men to be sneered at as "sophistical reasoning? Let us see what Gen Jackson had to say on the subject. In his message of 1830 he affirmed the constitutional power of the General Government to impose duties on imports said that "the right to adjust these duties with a view to the encouragement of domestic branches of industry is so completely incidental to that power that it is difficulty to suppose the existence of the one without the other" He then went on to say that all the Presidents who had preceded him had recommended the exercise of this power and the people had always acquiesced in it But on another occason he went more fully into the subject, and argued for the doctrine of protection in this way

> Heaven smiled upon and gave us liberty and independence That same Providence has blessed us with the means of national independence and national defence. He has filled our mountains and our plains with minerals, and given us a climate and a soil for the growing of hemp and wool. These being the great materials of our national defence they ought to have extended to them adequate protection * * * Where has the American farmer a market for his surplus product? Except for cotton he has neither a foreign nor a home market Does not this clearly prove, when there is no market at home or abroad that there is too much labor employed in agriculture? Common sense at once points out the remedy Take from agriculture in the United States 600 000 people and you will at once give a market for more breadstuffs than all Europe now furnishes us In short we have been too long subject to the policy of the British merchants

Gen Jackson was elected President as a "protective tariff" man and always adhered to the doctrine We could summon more authorities, old and new if we had space but we trust we have given enough to indicate to one who never heard a sound argument in favor of protection, where some useful information may be found

It appears that the Republicans elected two, and the Democrats three, of the Supreme Judges that were chosen in the late election in New York That was not so sweeping a Democratic victory after all.

Compulsory Disgorgement Again

There is a paper published at Jacksonville called the News. It is an unmitigated and unterrified Democratic sheet and sticks to the original interpretation of the eighth resolution Unlike the Herald, it cannot be made to go back on that resolution and eat its own words Still believing in repudiation and compulsory disgorgement it does not hesitate to say so or to strike at the cowardly newspapers which at first advocated that doctrine and afterwards meanly slunk from it to take shelter behind Mr Fay who was the leading spirit of the Albany Convention is now a candidate for the State Senate in Jackson county and his home the Jacksonville paper still proclaims with as much boldness as ever the doctrine of repudiation In the News of the 14th inst the following appears which as it is both a defense of Mr Fay and an attack on his enemies was clearly written with his approbation

> The Albany Democrat appears to be wonderfully exercised over Mr Fay's letter to the Portland ratification meeting and is quite severe in its denunciations of the author The secret of Mr Bellinger's patriotic indignation lies in the fact that Mr Fay cast the ten votes he held in the Albany Convention against Mr Bellinger's partner Mr M V Brown thereby defeating him for the nomination for State Printer and nominating T Patterson The head and front of Mr Fay's offending hath this extent no more. So far as the sentiments of the Convention which adopted the "eighth resolution" are concerned the editor of the Democrat, who was present during the whole proceedings knows that the construction placed on the resolution by Mr Fay was the sentiment held and expressed by the majority on the various test votes had before the final passage of the resolution

We have not yet seen this paragraph in the Herald That paper hastened with wonderful alacrity to publish Mr Fay's compulsory disgorgement letter and to give it unqualified approval but it has since been browbeaten and cowed into silence and dares not now express any opinions

We call particular attention to the concluding sentence of the above extract It is there asserted that Mr Fay's views were those of the Convention No one can truthfully deny this fact. The convention intended to make a repudiation platform and did it The thrust at the Albany Democrat is a sharp one, and one which that paper cannot parry Had it received the nomination for State Printer no doubt it would have gone the whole figure for repudiation and accepted that construction of the platform which the Convention gave it, and which was approved by every other Democratic paper at the commencement of the campaign

Editorial Notes.

The "bill to enforce the Fifteenth Amendment," which has passed both Houses of Congress, would be more properly entitled a bill to punish those who obstruct the operation of the Amendment as that is the spirit and intent of the act Perhaps there was no necessity for such an act, but its passage will do no harm

When the order to increase the mail service of the west side of the Wallamet valley was made a short time ago, the route was laid down in such a way that McMinnville was inadvertently omitted A letter from Senator Williams, dated May 5th states that he has called the attention of the Department to the omission and that the route will be so laid down as to bring McMinnville in the line of the daily mail that is to commence running on the 1st July

The Herald may swell and strut and put on airs and claim to be the "leading Democratic journal of Oregon," but it is nevertheless completely in subjection to the little Democratic weekly at Albany It dares to speak only with permission of its Albany master Its condition is most abject and humiliating, —as degraded as that of Caliban and even more so, for it lacks the spirit to answer its Albany master in the resentful terms in which the slave Caliban would answer his master Prospero.

The Democratic organ claims the passage of the west side railroad bill as a Democratic measure It says that if the Democrats in the House had gone unitedly against it, it would probably have been defeated, hence Democrats are entitled to the honor of passing it This logic is very like that employed by some Democrats to prove that their party is entitled to the credit of preserving the country in the late war They admit that the Democratic party opposed the prosecution of the war, but say that if that party had joined the rebels en masse, the Southern Confederacy would have succeeded, hence Democrats are solely entitled to the credit of having preserved the Union!

Chadwick's biography, as published in the Democratic papers, contains an extract from a Connecticut journal in which Mr Chadwick is highly landed This wooden nutmeg authority states that he (Chadwick) is deservedly popular is a bed rock Democrat and "made the first speech before the first Democratic Convention in that State," (Oregon) The organs make a slight correction by saying "Territory" instead of "State" But their correction does not go far enough It was at the Republican State Convention at Eugene City in 1862 that Mr Chadwick was so prominent He was there seeking the nomination from the Republicans for Congress Herald Democrat et al please copy

Ten Years in Wall Street

This is the title of a new book by Wm Worthington Fowler It is a work of 536 pages containing as its title would indicate revelations of life on change the histories and mysteries of men of the street the stock exchange the gold room speculations in stocks and how it is done etc, together with personal reminiscences and anecdotes of famous financiers and stock operators and descriptions of the great panics which have occurred within the last thirty years The various devices of the bulls and bears, together with the peculiar slang of Wall street are minutely explained, and it would seem that there can scarcely be anything connected with this great money-center of the western world worth knowing which is not told—and all in a style almost as captivating as the great money getting and money losing game of which the writer treats Not only is Wall street with its adjuncts graphically pictured to the imagination of the reader but its bubtoes its money kings, with their lieutenants and the rabble who throng into the street forever and ever to cast themselves into the nets spread for them are so well drawn that the reader goes on from page to page with a sort of an impression that he is reading reminiscences of old familiar acquaintances And yet there are few pages of romance equal in thrilling interest to these everyday facts of Wall street There is no American but has heard of Wall street gold gambling stock operators etc and no American who ever hears without interest the casual newspaper allusions to them This book explains all I can scarcely fail to find in the reading market a demand equal to that for any new book within the last several years Mrs Millett who has the only copy in Oregon, is now in this city and about to enter upon the canvass for subscriptions

POLITICAL NOTES

The Herald says the News published a batch of affidavits to prove that it was Mr Smith instead of Mr Grover with whom Doland corresponded on the subject of running the Salem factory by Chinese labor How much better does that make it?

Mr Beriah Brown advertises the printing establishment of the Democratic Press for sale The concern has been so debauched under his present management that he cannot afford to have his name connected with it again The present business manager is about to retire from the gaze of the world. Take the advice of your friends and get thee to a tannery, William

Senator Casserly says that Democrats everywhere acquiesce in the Fifteenth Amendment and cordially recognize the right of colored men to vote He argues therefore that an act to enforce the Fifteenth Amendment or to punish persons for obstructing its operation, is entirely unnecessary But a bill of this character has passed the House and will doubtless pass the Senate at once

A letter from the Dalles informs us that Col Fulton candidate for the Legislature in Wasco county made a speech the other night, but failed to explain the eighth resolution which he might have done by telling the audience that eight or nine years ago he borrowed a large amount of gold from Mr Jordan Hembree of Yamhill and after keeping it four or five years "equitably adjusted" by paying in greenbacks at par when greenbacks were worth sixty cents on the dollar —thereby making about $1 700 clear

Mr. Marshall Blinn bolters candidate for Congress in Washington Territory has received the sobriquet of "Thompson's Colt," by which he is now generally known We are not able to give an account of the circumstances which led to the achievement by Mr Blinn of this distinction What we wish to speak of now is the reception of a long letter from Monticello giving a statement of the doings of the colt and his driver Dennison at that place last Wednesday Speeches were made but not a leaf stirred till the close of the exercises when three rousing cheers were given for Garfielde, and the audience pressed around Mr Blinn to congratulate him and to give him their positive assurance that he will not get a vote in the county

[From the Vancouver Register]

A Ku Klux Klan has been formed at the Mill Plain and a resolution was passed not to patronize Republicans any more or employ them in any business matter

At the last regular meeting of Vancouver Engine Company No 1, the members were agreeably surprised by the present of two beautiful brass torches, presented by Messrs L Goldsmith & Co of Portland, Oregon, through Mr M Wintler of Vancouver.

There will be a public meeting held at Metropolis Hall, in this place on Tuesday May 24, at 7½ o'clock, P M for the purpose of organizing a company with a view of supplying the place of the Fannie Troup and to consider such other business as the interests of the place demand Signed—J. The Assistant Marshals are obliged, under oath, to visit every house in their divisions, and obtain their required information in person, being forbidden to subdivide any portion of the territory to which they may be assigned. In visiting a house they are required to ask questions regarding the names and number of families, their social condition, color, birthplace, value of premises, &c. and any one over eighteen years of age, who refuses to give the required information, if able to do so, is liable under the law to a fine which fine can be recovered in the United States Circuit Court, the same as any other civil debt

MR. O MEARA'S SPEECH.—There was a rousing meeting at the Republican Club Room on Saturday evening. Mr. O Meara delivered an address from a stand-point entirely independent of party, which was received with great applause. He showed that the Democratic party of Oregon, by the adoption of a repudiation platform, had forsaken the creed of the national Democratic party; that as the Republican party was the organization that proposed to uphold the honor of the country and to build up its internal ..., and that as it was the only party which could now be looked to to help forward the interests of this State, it should be supported at this time by all men of independent views, who can rise above party and look to the good of the country.

OMISSION.—In our mention of the Oregon Iron Works, we inadvertently omitted to state that the cupola was under the charge of Mr Skih..., an old and experienced furnaceman, whom we first knew very many years ago in charge of a ... department of the St Joseph Iron Works ... establishment in the northern part of Indiana.

Senator Corbett has introduced a bill in Congress providing for the sale of timber lands in Oregon, Washington Territory and California so that the same can be made available for lumber By the terms of the bill, these lands can be sold to persons at $1.25 per acre, to the extent of 640 acres to each person or corporation. This measure is proposed to favor the settlers of the coast counties whose business depends upon the manufacture of lumber from native forests on lands mostly surveyed, and will no doubt pass and reconcile the alleged infractions of U S law in converting timber on Government lands to private use

MRS STANTON DOES SWEAR.—This lady recently wrote to her organ in New York—the Revolution—that on a certain occasion she felt in a state of mind to say damn it It is said by one editor if she felt to say so she did say so for she is not a lady to keep back her honest thoughts on any occasion She is somewhat excused by the press for the reason that, in studying and reflecting over the suffrage situation, she came to the conclusion that one of the privileges of electors was swearing and she was really desirous of perfecting herself in all the accomplishments of a voter It is furthermore added that if she will swear no more she may be entitled to the privilege of Uncle Toby, and have the swear overlooked by the accusing spirit and the recording angel

Upon the arrival of John Savage at San Francisco Messrs I O C Newell and Thos Kearney, the first the Head Centre of the State of Oregon, and the second the Centre of the Wolf Tone Circle of Portland telegraphed to him to invite him to visit Oregon The following is the reply received

LICK HOUSE SAN FRANCISCO
May 11 1870

GENTLEMEN Your dispatch of greeting and of welcome reached me after I had returned from the great demonstration which took place on last Sunday [The Fenian picnic at Redwood City]

I have delayed an answer until a consultation with friends as to the possibility of my being able to comply with your kind request and visit Portland It is feared that my programme of action will not permit it as much time would be consumed in merely traveling to and from your city

If anything should occur by which my stay on this coast would be prolonged I will eagerly avail myself of the opportunity to accept the invitation to Portland and will duly inform you

I saw your friend Mr Cabaliz today and impressed upon him some facts which he will convey as an important to the success of the Brotherhood With respect yours truly

Help for the Miserable

No wonder that the face of the dyspeptic that a dragged worn hopeless expression that is pitiful to see. No wonder that the miserable martyr to indigestion is fretful irritable and unsocial Whoever can bear the pangs of this tormenting complaint cheerfully and with an unruffled temper is little short of a saint But why should human fortitude continue to be thus severely tried when an absolute specific for the disease is always at hand Everywhere within the limits of civilization in this hemisphere Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is obtainable and the history of the first case of dyspepsia in which it has been administered in vain has yet to be written The sickness at the stomach the sense of weakness and stupor the feeling of emptiness and hollowness before eating and of oppression afterwards, the fluttering of the pulse the intense nervous irritation the morbid indisposition to exertion the weariness of life and indifference to its pleasures which are among the symptoms of the disease in its chronic form are rapidly ameliorated by the tonic operation of this palatable vegetable restorative which seems to renovate and quicken all the dormant forces of the system and rouse the mind from the apathy and gloom inseparable from a derangement of the digestive and secretive functions In ordinary cases a few weeks suffices to complete the cure, but when the disease is complicated with torpidity of the liver ... constipation impurity of the blood and a sluggish circulation a longer time may be required Persevere however and the result is certain An encouraging improvement will be perceptible from day to day and the convalescent knowing and feeling that he or she is on the high road to health will await the happy issue with comparative patience

ALASKA

From the Sitka Times, April 30th.

The Newbern will remain here about ten days and return to San Francisco. She has been repaired at a cost of about $[illegible].

Lieut. [illegible] F. Howell and Lieut. [illegible] Mason are awaiting the arrivals by the steamer Constantine. Both officers have reported for duty to Capt. [illegible]. The Reliance has received orders by this mail to cruise this summer in Behring's sea.

The Government mill which was so long in getting in good working order, is now turning out large quantities of excellent lumber. It will be a great saving to the Government, which uses so much lumber in a place like this, to have it at first cost in place of paying exorbitant prices for lumber, the same as it has cost heretofore.

There is no whisky in Sitka among the whites, but the Indians seem to have a goodly supply among themselves, and no doubt will supply the American citizens in the future with it, as the order of the Treasury Department cannot prevent the Indians from bringing all the liquor they may need from Fort Simpson and other trading posts owned by the Hudson Bay Company. There is now more drunkenness among the Indians in this Territory than ever there was known before. Say to the Indians that they cannot have liquor and see if they will not get it in some way, and so it is with white men. If they cannot have it fairly they will have it some other way. The Treasury Department in issuing arbitrary orders, such as are now in force in Alaska, simply open a field for an illicit traffic for smugglers, thus depriving the Treasury of the United States of thousands of dollars yearly, and making an unlawful act justifiable in the eyes of most every man in this Territory.

Are we ever going to have an end to a reign of terror and rowdyism in Sitka. Last Wednesday night about ten o'clock, W. H. Wood was in Caplan's saloon, under the influence of liquor, and while there, G. W. Brady, who was also intoxicated, entered and interrupted Mr. Caplan and Mr. Wood, who were talking at the bar. A friend of Mr. Wood was in the act of taking him home, and as soon as they left the saloon, Brady followed and taking hold of Wood, wanted to know what he had to say to him, and pulled out a slung-shot and struck Wood on the cheek bone, inflicting a very severe cut, causing him to bleed in a terrible manner. Mr. Wood, on being taken into the saloon to get the blood washed off, said that it was a cowardly act, and Brady, being at the door, overheard it, rushed in and struck Wood with his fist. Mr. Caplan made him leave the house, but in a few moments he returned with a shot gun or rifle in his hand and appeared very much excited. He said he would not allow any man to call him a coward. The proprietor of the saloon made him leave, and that too, without killing anybody.

The Orphans of the Oneida.

It will be remembered that recently the managers of the "Union Home and School for Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans" generously offered to take charge of and educate the children of those who were lost on the Oneida. The Secretary of the Navy acknowledges the offer in the following noble letter to Mrs. General Fremont, who communicated the offer of the Union Home:

WASHINGTON, May 2, 1870.

MY DEAR MADAM: I have received your letter enclosing the announcement that the managers of the Union Home for Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans in New York are prepared to take charge of and educate the children who have been left fatherless by the fatal collision of the British steamer Bombay with the United States ship Oneida, in the Bay of Jeddo. I beg that you will allow me to express to you and your associates, for myself and for the whole naval service, the high appreciation that will be felt for this act of generous charity.

The fate of the officers and men of the Oneida and the circumstances under which it was met were such as to appeal for sympathy to every heart, and they present to the world an example of courage and discipline of which the men and women of our country may well be proud. To provide for the orphans of those who died so suddenly yet so bravely is an act worthy of your noble charity—an act noble in itself and which will have an effect for good beyond the present. There is no stronger sorrow than that which comes with the thought of those who are left unprovided behind; and death, whatever form it takes, will be met with less regret, if not with more courage, by every sailor as he realizes that the hearts of his countrywomen are open and warm towards him.

In the name of the officers and men of the navy, I thank the managers and members of your institution, and assure you of a grateful remembrance of your kindness by them and their children and of the higher reward which will come to you with the consciousness of giving joy to so many hearts. Very respectfully,

GEORGE M. ROBESON,
Secretary of the Navy.

Resolutions

ON THE DEATH OF CHARLES WRIGHT, A MEMBER OF COLUMBIA LODGE, NO. FIFTY-SIX, I. O. G. T.

HALL OF COLUMBIA LODGE, No. 56, I. O. G. T.,
May 19, 1870.

WHEREAS the Supreme Being of the Universe has in His infinite wisdom seen fit to remove from our beloved Order by death our worthy brother Charles Wright, who was a charter member of this Lodge; and whereas, during his affliction we were not permitted to minister to him and to consign his remains to its last resting place, therefore

Resolved, That while we humbly submit to the will of the All Wise Being we sincerely mourn the loss of our brother.

Resolved, That we deeply sympathise with the relatives and friends of our deceased brother.

Resolved, That the members of this Lodge wear the usual badge of mourning and the Hall be draped in mourning for the period of thirty days.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to the parents of the deceased.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be furnished the Pacific Christian Advocate and other weekly papers in Portland for publication.

JOHN POWELL,
ANDREW PULLEN,
CHAS. SCHRAMM,
Committee.

The Manufacturer and Builder, for April, has a rough wood cut, which strikingly illustrates the progress made in steam travel since the first introduction of railroads. It is a picture of the first steam train in America, and is as great a curiosity as an old fashioned poke bonnet would be on the head of a girl of the period. It represents a trial trip made over the Mohawk and Hudson Railroad, in 1831—less than forty years ago, and yet the train has the rudest resemblance to a railroad train of the present day. The bodies of the cars were nothing but old style stage-coaches, with driver's seat and all, set on railroad car wheels. The tender looked like a top buggy, while the locomotive—imported from England and called "John Bull"—had a boiler but five feet long, and was altogether of most primitive construction. The sixteen passengers on board the two coaches, composed only of men who had the nerve to risk their lives behind the "infernal snortin' critter," comprised some of the prominent men of the day, among whom was Thurlow Weed, and also said to be Thomas H. Benton, Jefferson Davis and Henry Clay.

The prospectus has just been issued for a new Commentary on the Bible, which is shortly to be published in London. The work will have some novel features, the main object being to counteract the influence of scientific teachers upon the Biblical cosmogony. Its authors proceed upon the idea that the Bible instead of being used by the people "without note or comment," should be placed in their hands with some explanatory commentary, in order to "supply them with satisfactory answers to objections resting upon mis-representations of its contents." The men having it in charge are those who may be considered moderate men in the church of England, such as Archbishop Thompson, Professor Rawlinson, Professor Plumptre, Bishop Thirlwall and Dean Mansel. Men of extreme views, either High or Low Church, like Colenso, Jowett, Pusey, and Dean Stanly, are shut out from a participation in its composition, and thus some of the best Biblical scholars in Great Britain are conspicuous by their absence from the corps of editors engaged on the work.

RAPID RAILROAD TRAVELING WESTWARD.—The Philadelphia Inquirer gives the following account of a new fast railroad train between that city and Chicago:

The Pennsylvania Central Railroad Company have put a fast train upon their road, which makes the distance between this city and Chicago in the extraordinary short space of time of twenty-six and a half hours. Starting from here at half-past twelve, noon, it makes no stoppage until it reaches Harrisburg, at fifty seven minutes past three P. M. Then it dashes ahead to Altoona, where it arrives at twelve minutes past eight P. M. Four hours later, twelve minutes past twelve A. M., finds it in Pittsburg. At three o'clock the same afternoon it is in Chicago. This rapid running is almost unprecedented in American railroad history.

Short Paragraphs.

It [illegible] one [illegible] annually to astonish the students in natural philosophy by remarking, when the time came for assigning a certain portion of the text book, "The [illegible] may go to thunder."

A citizen of [illegible]ville, Vt., recently made a bet that he could harness himself into a sulky, weighing sixty pounds, and draw a man weighing 150 pounds one mile in fifteen minutes. The trial is to be made on the trotting course in Burlington, June 4.

A female who killed her husband two years ago in Ohio and was sentenced to prison for life says she is satisfied she did wrong, and wants to come out. Besides that, she says [illegible] her husband [illegible] good to see, then in there and likely she may another chance to marry.

An actor in Albany was allowed only seven minutes to change his dress "from that of a Puritan father to a forest fiend," and complains, in a card to the public, that a critic excoriated him because he was "thus unable to do justice to said fiend as regards dress."

The town clock at Sing Sing struck twenty one times at ten o'clock the other night. One poor fellow, who had been to see his friends, counted the strokes and declared that he had never been out so late before in all his life, and he did not know what his wife would say.

The other day Molecule propounded the following to Atom: "A boy said to a gentleman, 'My father and mother have a daughter, but she is not my sister.' Now how do you explain that?" Atom reflected in vain and to his every suggestion received a negative reply, and was forced to give it up. 'Why, it's simple enough,' said Molecule with an exasperating smile, 'the boy lied.'"

Rev. Robert Collyer, in a recent lecture on "The Theatre, the Opera, and Church," said: "I confess I never saw such power, I never recognized such nature in any Christian pulpit that it was ever my privilege to sit under as in Joseph Jefferson's 'Rip Van Winkle.' It is nature not art. No sermon scarcely in the world, except that of Christ, when he stood with the adulterous woman, ever illustrated the power of love to conquer evil and to win the wanderer, as that little piece, so perfectly rendered by this genius which God has given to illustrate in the drama the power of love over the sins of the race."

AN INVITING CHANCE FOR SUICIDE.—There is a Democratic newspaper printed at Eugene, Oregon, the editor of which must be in a very dyspeptic state. He imagines himself to be a slave. He considers himself to be trodden under the feet of tyrants, and not he alone. All "the white people" of the United "States" are suffering with the same complaint—the poor light colored martyrs! For once in his life, in sheer desperation, the Eugene editor utters a prayer, and inquires, in the very Highest Quarter, how long "the eyes of White People in the United States are to be closed to the h—lish iniquities of their oppressors?" Not receiving an immediate answer to this question, he groweth historical with another: "When will the spirit of Tell and Winkelreid raise like a Phœnix from the ashes of our liberties, and swear on their blades, if necessary, that America shall be a White Man's country?" It amuses and apparently relieves a good many asses who have obtained a fortuitous control of types, to write elegiac nonsense, of which the above is a fair specimen. We see and (for our sins) are obliged to read a good deal of it every day; but the time has gone by for seriously attempting to show its absurdity. The policy of the Republic will hardly be changed by such stuff, whether it be uttered by Saulsbury in the Senate, or printed by laboriously pathetic editors. We will give these gentlemen just one more year to groan in. If, in that time, public affairs (in their estimation) are not changed for the better, we shall expect them to stop scolding and resort to suicide.—N. Y. Tribune, May 15.

The steamship Moses Taylor sailed Saturday evening with a full freight and thirty-five passengers, for San Francisco. Among her freight were 24,000 doz. Eggs, the largest single shipment of the season.

The Albany Register quotes Wheat at that city as in demand at 65a70c.

The Baker City Democrat of the 18th, gives the following paragraph concerning the mines of Eastern Oregon: "The news from all the mining camps is of a cheering character. As far as we have been able to ascertain all the camps are having a fair supply of water, and all the miners are working with a will. Some time will elapse before money will be abundant, owing to the fact that miners will not stop to clean up until the volume of water decreases. In about two weeks look out for flush times in Baker county. We learn that on the claim of Powell & Co., in the Pocahontas District, thirty dollars was picked up out of the ground sluice, in one day and nineteen the next."

WASHINGTON TERRITORY.

For Delegate to Congress:
SELUCIUS GARFIELDE.

Republican Platform.

Adopted by the Republican Territorial Convention at Vancouver, April 21st, 1870.

Resolved, That the Republicans of Washington Territory are in full accord with the great Republican party of the Nation: the party that maintained and carried the Government through the most powerful and gigantic rebellion known in history, notwithstanding the aid and assistance rendered by enemies abroad and traitors at home; the party that successfully triumphed over the arms of the rebels at the South, that removed the foul blot from the national escutcheon that disgraced us in the eyes of the civilized world, that sustained our financial credit beyond the hopes of the most sanguine, that has shown a magnanimity and forbearance to the vanquished that challenges the admiration of mankind, and that ever true to the best interests of the people, has opened a highway for the interchange of products of the Eastern and Western portions of the continent, that will long be marked as one of the wonders of the age.

Resolved, That we regard the administration of President Grant as eminently successful, that the difficult questions which were presented by the anomalous condition of eleven States at the close of the rebellion, have been settled in accordance with the soundest principles of justice and political economy, and we confidently look for a speedy, harmonious and perfect restoration of the constitutional relations between all the States and the General Government.

Resolved, That the management of the finances by the Legislative and Executive branches of the Government by the present Administration, has been wise, prudent and careful, and we refer with pride and pleasure to the fact that no financial convulsions have occurred, that the credit of the Government has been sustained, and that the relative value of specie and paper currency has approximated as rapidly as was consistent with the safety of our commercial and financial affairs.

Resolved, That the bold and unflinching position assumed by the Administration in regard to the Alabama claims has already produced the most salutary results, which are evidenced not only by the manifest desire of Great Britain to re-open negotiations but by a willingness to conduct them in conformity with recognized principles of international law.

Resolved, That the National and Territorial Governments should be conducted in all their branches with the most rigid economy, that the necessaries of life should, as far as practicable, be exempt from direct or indirect taxation; and that we are opposed to repudiation in any form, believing that the honor of the nation is of more importance than any pecuniary consideration.

Resolved, That we earnestly urge upon the National Government the speedy settlement of our rights to the San Juan and other Islands lying between the Canal De Haro and Rosario Straits, and the acknowledgement by Great Britain of our just claims thereto, and the importance of opening negotiations for the purpose of securing the annexation of British Columbia to the United States.

Resolved, That the North Pacific Railroad and its branches is a work of national importance, hence we call upon the General Government for the most liberal aid and assistance to secure its early construction and completion.

The Fifteenth Amendment Club will meet at Ankle Hall every Wednesday and Friday evenings at 8 o'clock.

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

623 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies [illegible] that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of those fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who, with bogus sworn-to certificates, dupe the unwary. Some of the self-styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen, and became too lazy to work at their trades. Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory, and you will not find their Medical Institute in it, but you will find their former occupations in it. Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1868. The only way to avoid imposition is to make enquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets, for, as advertising physicians, in eight cases out of ten are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended patient's letters, etc. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 623 Kearney street, corner Commercial, (Private Entrance on Commercial) San Francisco; Post Office Box 252.

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 252 ON THE LETTER.

Consultations FREE.

Correspondents will please inform DR. GIBBON that they read his advertisement in the Daily Oregonian. jy6d&ptf
